

Latest discussion

[an error occurred while processing this directive] - Discussion board home | Log in

More info

- A brief guide into 3G
- 3G Glossary
- Whitepapers & Reports
- 3G phones DB
- 3G License Info DB

Search

Search news

Search this site

3G Phone Shop

3G Books to Buy

3G Discussion Forum

Join our Mailing List

About us/Contact us

SMARTTEAST
WORKING SMARTER TOGETHER

GreenTeapots.co.uk

Latest 3G News

Qualcomm and Teleepoch Enter Into a 3G CDMA Subscriber Unit License Agreement

October 6, 2007: Qualcomm, a developer of wireless technologies and data solutions, and Teleepoch, a Chinese mobile solutions provider, announced that they have entered into a subscriber unit license agreement. read more about it

MTN chooses Cambridge Broadband Networks for multi-service wireless network in Rwanda

October 6, 2007: MTN Group, Africa's leading cellular operator, has selected the VectaStar platform from Cambridge Broadband Networks for its multi-service wireless network in Rwanda. read more about it

GreenTeapots.co.uk

We Sell Chinese YiXing teapots Online.

zhuni clay - YiXing.co.uk

Brazilian government to publish 3G bidding rules soon

October 6, 2007: Brazil's telecoms regulator Anatel expects to publish bidding rules for an auction of 3G spectrum later this month. read more about it

KTF 3G service suffers from technical problems

October 6, 2007: KTF's third-generation mobile service is being marred by technical glitches. read more about it

Argentina's Personal lunches 3G service in Rosario

October 6, 2007: Personal, a subsidiary of Telecom Argentina Group, has launched 3G services in the city of Rosario, reports BNamericas, quoting a company statement. read more about it

Russia has it's first 3G network

October 6, 2007: MegaFon is Russia's first mobile operator to launch its IMT-2000/UMTS (3G) network. read more about it

AT&T could drop Alcatel-Lucent as 3G mobile network

Online Partners

ASIA

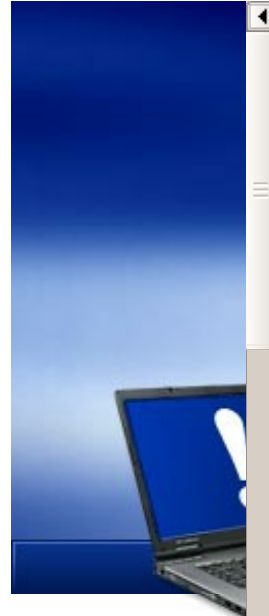

12-14 NOVEMBER

Gateway to the Mobile Future

Macau
2007

More 3G News

More from other sites

Search

Sponsored listings

VoIP Phone Sys

PC Mag's Top Rated

Speciality.com

supplier

October 6, 2007: More woes for Alcatel-Lucent after a report in the Financial Times suggested that the company is in danger of seeing its 3G contract with the USA's AT&T shrink due to delivery delays. The newspaper says that following delays in supplying WCDMA kit by Alcatel-Lucent, part of their contract was transferred to Ericsson.

read more about it

Enea Extends License Agreement with ZTE for 3G Handsets

October 2, 2007: Enea, a provider of network software and services, announced that ZTE Corporation, a provider of telecommunications equipment and network solutions, has selected Enea's flagship real-time operating system OSE 5 for its 3G mobile phone chip-sets.

read more about it

LG to unveil premium handsets in Brazil

October 2, 2007: LG Electronics will unveil a series of premium handsets in Brazil to grab the top spot in the 3G next generation mobile market in the fast-growing Latin American country.

read more about it

KTF 3G subscribers doubled in less than 3 months

October 2, 2007: South Korea's second-largest mobile carrier, KTF, said Sunday that the number of subscribers to its third-generation mobile service has more than doubled to 2 million in less than three months.

read more about it

previous news